

Right now you read this website with your browser. The text has been sent over Internet from a computer to your computer. But how is all this possible? In this course you will learn about HTML, CSS and JavaScript, and how you can create a website!

The web consists of many building blocks and the web course teaches you about three of these building blocks; HTML, CSS and JavaScript. HTML is text describing The content of a website. CSS is the style, so how the website should look. JavaScript is a programming language that tells you what your browser is about do.

Lisens: CC BY-SA 4.0