Processing is a text based programming language developed to make it easy for designers and others who have not programmed before, to create graphical programs. This makes Processing perfect for those who want to to learn how to make games and multimedia programs.

How to install Processing

- Go to processing.org/download.